

PEMBROKE TUTORS

CAMERON

I am a Cambridge graduate who has worked as a teacher and private tutor globally with students of all ages over the past five years. My lessons are always tailored to students' unique learning styles and I am a patient tutor familiar with mainstream teaching techniques for those with special education needs. Moreover, I enjoy finding different materials and new ways to introduce topics to turn students' least favourite subject into an area of deep interest.

Education

Oct 2012 – Jun 2015 Bachelors of Arts Fitzwilliam College, University of Cambridge
Grade: 2.i
Year 1 & 2: Modern and Medieval Languages (Spanish and Italian)
Year 3: Management Studies (Cambridge Judge Business School)

Sep 2004 – Jun 2011 Wycombe High Grammar School for Girls, High Wycombe
A levels: 1 A* - Spanish
2 As - French, English Literature
GCSEs: 8 A*s – Mathematics, Science, English Literature, French, Spanish, Italian, I.T., Citizenship
4 As – Additional Science, Additional Maths, Business Studies, English Language

Tuition History

I have offered tuition services over the last five years and can provide sessions on the following:

- i. KS1, 2 and 3: English, Mathematics, Science, French, Spanish, Italian
- ii. 11 / 13+ tuition: Verbal and Non-Verbal reasoning
- iii. GCSE level: Mathematics, English, French, Spanish, Italian
- iv. A Level : Spanish, Italian and English Literature
- v. Supporting Oxbridge applications and preparation for interviews

My teaching philosophy is centred around the idea that any subject can become a hobby if you find the right hook. Teachers do their very best to make subjects interesting, but with so many students in the class often do not have the capacity to find a unique way to enthuse each individual. The value a tutor can bring is to “think outside the box” by bringing an alternative perspective or learning material to a subject based on a tutee’s interests to help a natural intrigue to build. Being well-versed around a subject is also very important and can help students to bring original thought to their work, ensuring they can achieve top marks. For students who are already interested but simply need more practice or confidence, I offer compassion, humour and the belief that hard work will pay off.

I have spent many years travelling and living abroad, having met many different people and experienced different cultures which is an element that I like to bring to my lessons.

Employment History

2016-2017 Healthcare Financial PR Consultant
For the past year I have been working as an executive consultant at a leading healthcare financial PR and strategic communications company in London working with C-suite level individuals at European biotech and pharmaceutical companies to manage their top-level communications strategy and relations with stakeholders including investors, healthcare analysts, media and patients.

2015-2016 Part-Time Private Tutor
During a scholarship year in Japan, I spent my free time tutoring students from age five to sixty-five on a range of subjects including primary-school English and Maths,

English for business, Film Studies and Cambridge-style supervisions on geopolitics and global issues.

- 2013-2014 Head of Entertainment, Fitzwilliam College Winter Ball
In charge of a sub-sector of three planning, negotiating contracts and managing the budget for the entertainment schedule for the ball. Sole-responsibility on the night for 150 performers and equipment across five separate stages to provide entertainment for 1200 guests.
- 2012-2015 Fitzwilliam College Undergraduate Admissions team
Undergraduate coordinator during December and January entrance interviews at Fitzwilliam College, Cambridge. Worked closely with the admissions team and tutors to ensure a timely and smooth interview process. Welcomed prospective students and helped them to mentally prepare ahead of often highly stressful interviews.
- 2012 Au pair and tutor
Lived with a family in Sicily, Italy caring for their son and daughter who were six and eight years old, respectively. I tutored them in English and helped with homework for two hours each day.
- 2011 Dance Captain at Wycombe High School
Helped to coordinate and run all internal and external dance shows, choreographed and led dance classes across all key stage groups from year 7 to year 12.

Achievements

- May 2016 Invited as a speaker at the Kyushu Bar Association quarterly meeting
I was invited to speak along with one other on the likely impact of Brexit on the UK and present arguments for and against the referendum
- 2015-2016 Tsuzuki Scholarship, Japanese University of Economics
Awarded a fully-funded scholarship to study Japanese at the University of Economics based on academic merit, commitment to and participation in college affairs and excellence at interview.
- 2010 Theatre School Scholarship
On success at a rigorous audition process, I was given a years' fully-funded scholarship to Peplow-Williams Academy for young performers, a part-time theatre school whose patron is Craig Revell-Horwood

Interests

In my spare time, I run a small online business sourcing, buying and selling designer clothes. The best thing about my line of work is that I meet new and different people on an almost daily basis. Whenever I can, I like to start the day with a 5-mile run and occasionally compete at local events. When it's raining, I watch documentaries and Ted talks that help me consider things from a different perspective.

References

Available on request.