

PEMBROKE TUTORS

GABRIEL

I first started tutoring in Oxford whilst studying for my degree in Modern Languages and rapidly expanded a network of tutees in the area. Since graduating, I have enjoyed committing more of my time to teaching one-on-one, which I balance alongside other interests. I find tutoring intellectually stimulating and incredibly fulfilling. As a teacher, I am fortunate enough to see the direct benefits of my work and I take pride in witnessing my students' progress and fulfil their academic goals. I try to instill in my students a love of learning and take a highly personalised approach to tutoring, tailoring my style to each individual.

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

Yndica, Retail Tech start-up

COO | Joined a retail tech startup as a director and launched product onto the market - a retail Pod allowing customers to purchase from featured brands inside instantly via smartphone. Managed client relations and won the first clients for the company. Led pitches to seed-round investors.

Maupard Fiduciaire, Accounting Firm in Paris

Business Developer | Developed the company's client base, winning clients constituting around a 5% rise in company turnover. Interpreted in meetings involving company CEOs and performed a range of translation tasks. Coordinated with non-French speaking clients and French third party service providers such as insurance brokers and lawyers. Benchmarked major service prices against market competitors. Developed company's relationship with an American commercial forum.

Teaching

Assistant Master for the Cothill Educational Trust | Pastoral care and sports coaching for children from ages 11-13 at the Château de Sauveterre school in Lombez, France. Provided language assistance during excursions and assisting teachers. Provided additional classroom teaching, particularly for children who struggled with usual classes and required extra tuition. I have also tutored privately for several years at various age and ability levels.

AWARDS

- College scholarship award at St Catherine's College
- Winner of the Cecil Roth Memorial essay prize and the Junior Paget Toynbee prize examination 2016 – Oxford Modern Languages
- C1 level Italian certificate from the university of Camerino
- Academic Exhibition at Winchester College
- Winner of the Winchester College French prize and participated in the EU translation prize

INTERESTS

I love sport, particularly football. I read widely, particularly in the languages I studied. When I get the chance, I enjoy travelling and immersing myself in different cultures.
